EDIU LIBRARY

In order to better serve you in the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Unit, we like to ask the groups we meet with what they're reading and watching right now, then assign it to ourselves as homework.

Some books have been graciously donated, and others we've purchased ourselves, but all are available for DPD employees to borrow in an effort to expand our own diversity of thought.

The following list is updated quarterly, and if you'd like to share a suggestion with us, please send it to EDIU@deltapolice.ca
